

National Maritime Museum Cornwall:

Preparing for your visit

Welcome!

This is the museum

Getting here

You can arrive by car, bus, train, boat or ferry.

This is the car park

There is a short walk to the museum from the car park

Entrance

There is a sliding door that opens automatically when you are close to it

Front Desk

This is where you get your tickets.
You can also get ear defenders and a sensory bag with interesting things in here.

This is the gift shop. Usually people visit this at the end of their visit.

Welcome Desk

You will be welcomed by a volunteer at this desk.

You can ask anyone wearing this uniform for help during your visit.

Toilets

There are toilets on the first and second floors.
The toilets have hand dryers which can be quite loud.

Main Hall

The first room you will see is very big. There are lots of boats.

You can hang up your coat on the coat rack.

Boat Pool — where you can sail a model boat

You will need £1 for a token which will give you 4.5 minutes to sail a boat.

If it is busy you might have to wait your turn.

This pool is not for swimming.

What you might see...

Boats

Change boxes where you can put a coin in and watch it spin around.

Old things in cases

Paintings

- There is a workshop where boats are often made which can be noisy.
- There is a spiral staircase or small lift to get to the top and bottom of the tower.
- There is a play area suitable for children aged 8 and under.
- If you need some time out you can ask a volunteer or someone wearing a name badge. There is a quiet area available during relaxed sessions.
- There is a café.
- You may see wet floor signs.
- You might like some areas more than others—that's ok!

We hope you enjoy your visit!
