

Group Packages 2020

National Maritime Museum Cornwall is Falmouth's most visited attraction, and Cornwall's busiest museum. With the sea and Cornwall at its heart it is the best place to find out more about the county's fascinating maritime heritage.

Visit Us

Bringing a group to National Maritime Museum Cornwall couldn't be easier, and with 15 galleries, spectacular views of Falmouth, a cafe, shop and rolling programme of blockbuster major exhibitions it's a wonderful place to spend some time. You can find out more about the Museum by visiting our website: nmmc.co.uk.

Things to do

- Discover life underwater in the Tidal Zone, where you can go below sea without getting wet.
- Take in 360 degree views of Falmouth and the estuary from the Lookout Tower.
- Explore our latest blockbuster major exhibition.
- Watch our boat builders in action in the workshop.
- Drink in the breathtaking views from the cafe.
- Skipper your own model sail boat on the Boat Pool.
- Stand under the floating flotilla and take in some of the nation's most significant boats.
- Find out more about Falmouth and Cornwall's connection to the sea.
- Hop aboard Jonik, a true Cornish boating gem, for an hours tour on the water, exploring Falmouth's maritime history and most famous landmarks.

FAQs

How long should we allow for a visit?

We recommend allowing a minimum of three hours to fully explore all the Museum. The Heritage Boat Tour takes an hour, so if you go for the Platinum Package allow four hours. Please note the Heritage Boat Tour runs at specific times during the year - please contact us for availability.

Is there coach parking?

The drop off point is in the Maritime Car Park. Coaches are asked to park at Gyllyngvase Car Park where there is a coach park (TR11 4DP).

Are there concessions available?

Unfortunately there are no concessions, however we do offer a 10% discount on groups of 10 or more on all group packages.

Do you provide a guided tour of the Museum?

Yes, we offer a guided tour of the Museum as part of the Silver Package, which also includes a souvenir guide book.

Is the museum wheelchair friendly?

Yes, the Museum is fully accessible with lifts to each floor, including the Tidal Zone and Lookout Tower. Please note that there is restricted access onto the boats as part of the Platinum Package.

Do I need to pre-book?

The Bronze package does not need to be pre-booked. The Silver, Gold and Platinum packages do need to be pre-booked which can be done by contacting Dayna Pope on daynapope@nmmc.co.uk or 01326 214557.
